WE ARE FAMILY

WE DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK . . .

To mothers, fathers, grandparents and guardians who laid the foundation of hope and molded our dreams. Who taught us to never accept less and to always strive to succeed.

To the husbands, wives, life partners and soulmates who never let us down. Who provided us with the promise of success when we became hopeless.

To the boyfriends and girlfriends who supported our goals whose persistent prodding, coaxing and unyielding understanding gave us the incentive to persevere.

To the daughters and sons, nieces and nephews who's eyes twinkle with the glimmer of faith; who knew we'd rise above all odds and accomplish the success that they will one day also achieve.

To the friends and roommates who admired out studious nature and never tried to tempt us away from our goal.

To the teachers and mentors who paved the way as role models guiding us down the road of success.

For our family, close, extended and distant, who shared in the joy of our steps towards our purpose as well as the pain of our setbacks.

For the wonderful, loving, caring individuals who reminded us of our potential and ability to conquer the unconquerable, make possible the impossible and reach the unreachable. For your undying support, honesty, encouragement and strength WE THANK YOU AND DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO YOU.

SPORTS

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

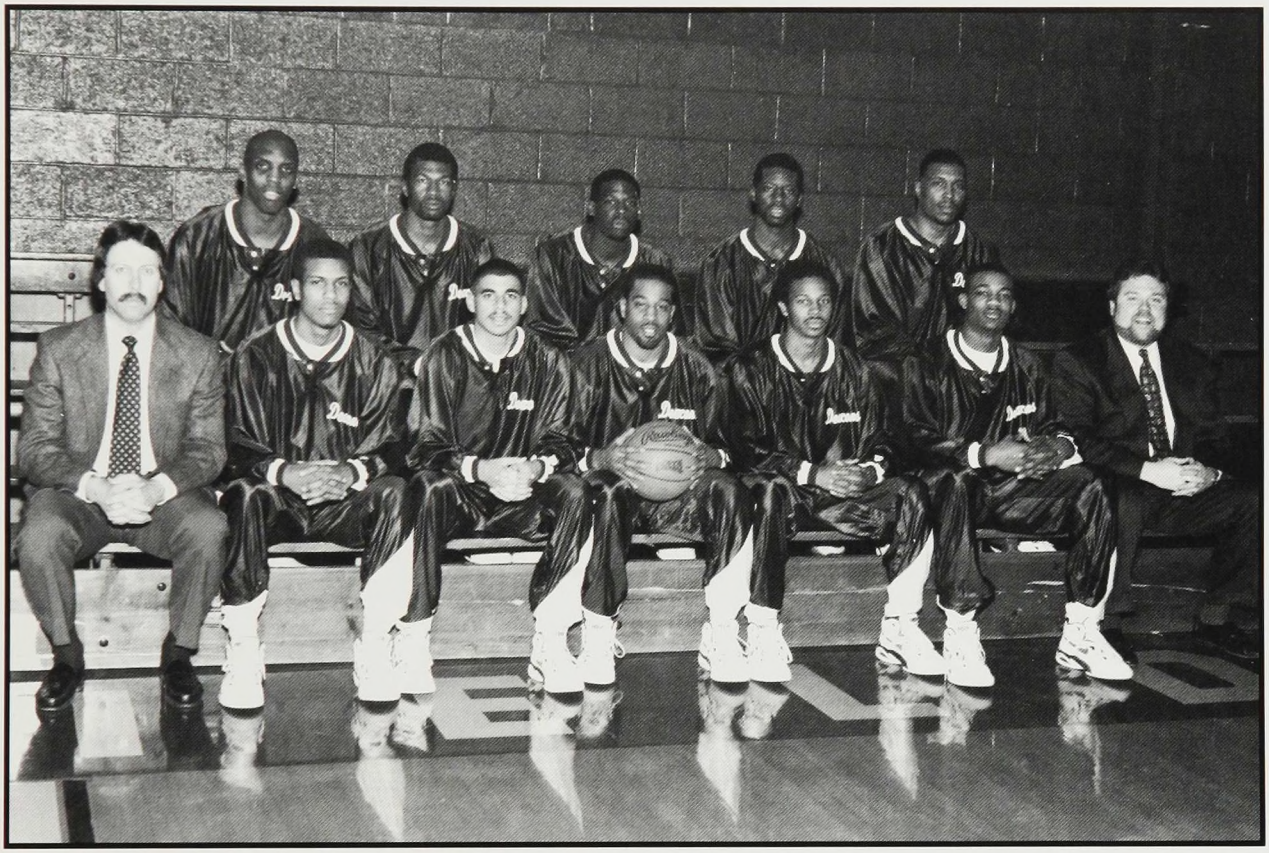
Seniors Lynette Hester-Bey and Wendy Ziegenfus capped fine careers, providing solid play and veteran leadership for a youthful group of Lady Deacons during the 95-96 season.

Hester-Bey scored her 1,000th career point during a campaign in which she averaged 10.8 points per game, second best on the team. Ziegenfus, the team's emotional leader, averaged 10 rebounds a game.

Junior Olisa Small had a fantastic season for the lady Deacons, who were 12-16. The team MVP topped the team in both scoring (13.9) and rebounding (12.4). Classmate Rosa Della Sala set a school record with 12 blocked shots in a game.

Underclassmen Kitty Lewandowski, Sobrina Vazquez, Kristine Greenhalgh, and Jenelle Parsons are a solid foundation for the future.

MEN'S BASKETBALL



The Deacons basketball team showed glimpses of a bright future during its 95-96 season. A team made up of several underclassmen struggled to a 4-24 record, but those youngsters showed that the record would improve during their stay.

Sophomore Bishara Bryant led the team in scoring and freshman Steven Diaz (the team MVP) topped the club in assists. Junior Karron Johnson was second in scoring and junior Kevin Moore blocked the most shots.

Senior Keith Collins finished a fine career as the team's third leading scorer.

BASEBALL

The Deacons relied on their bats for most of their production this season, topped by juniors C.J. Rott, Mike Salvanto and freshman twins Chris and Steve Langan, and brothers Eric and Scott Burgess.

All of those players hit better than .300, with Salvanto leading the team in homers and RBIs, adding an ERA under 3.00. Kevin Bednarz had a sparkling ERA under 2.00.

Senior captain Dan Troise led the team in at-bats, and Stu East, the only other senior on the team, went 4-1.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Bloomfield College women's soccer team looks to be a program on the rise after winning four games during the 1995 season.

Coach Hugo Pierre led a young and talented group of Lady Deacons to their first victories since 1993. Newcomers Sobrina Vazquez, Shequita Parsons, Zolita Dill, Nicole Gotthainer and Natasha Forsythe teamed with upperclassmen Kristine Greenhalgh, Laurie Brummer, Joanna Lawton, Sherry Williams, Tracy Mauriat and Cassandra Cosmeius to form a competitive club.

MEN'S SOCCER TEAM SCORES BIG

The Bloomfield College men's soccer team showed once again why it is considered one of the top programs in the country, compiling a 21-1-1 record during the 1995 season. The Deacons were ranked 11th in the nation and won the championship of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference.

Head coach Phil Santamassino and assistant coach Santiago Formosa, each in their first year in their positions, guided the team on a long winning streak before a loss in the NAIA Northeast Regional Tournament.

Frantz Jean Charles led New Jersey in scoring for the second straight year, followed by Anthony McSorely, Luis Serodio and Pablo Budda. Players such as Joe Montesino, Andy Dickson, Rob Connaghan, Tafari Outerbridge, Edafetenure Sodje, Musa Manneh and Tomas Mocerzinuk also excelled on a team with players from 14 different countries.

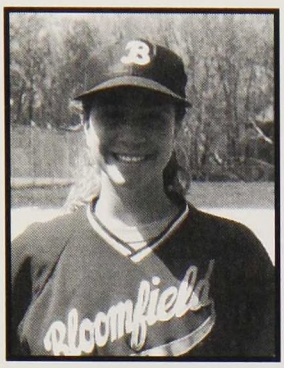
WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

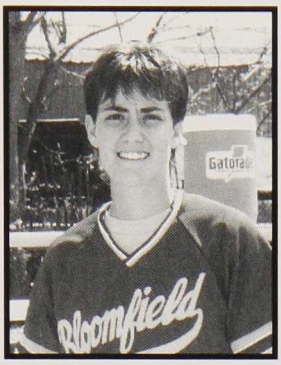
The Bloomfield College women's volleyball team ended its fine season with a school-best 24-11 record.

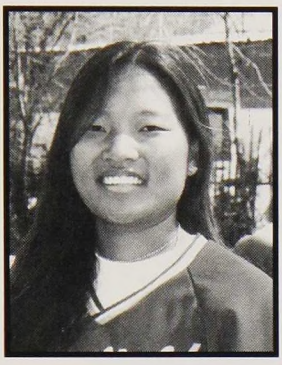
Olisa Small was again a standout performer, earning regional all-star honors. Small got lots of help from Jena Bryant, Lenora Wallace, Agustina Perez and Melissa Prestianni. Talented freshmen Fawn and Fay Coward, Digna Sanchez, Leslie Ann Zambrano and Christina Prestianni assure the program will continue its success under coach Sheila Wooten.

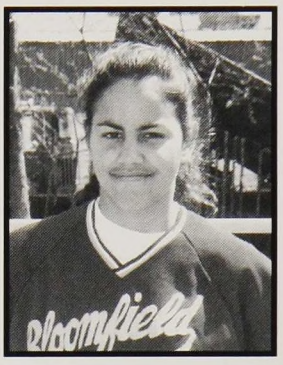
The team also won its second straight tournament at the Mountain Top Invitational at Ramapo College. Olisa Small was named Tournament MVP while Jena Bryant and Melissa Prestianni were named to the All Tournament Team. Olisa Small was also named to the Northeast All Region Volleyball Team, a first for the college.

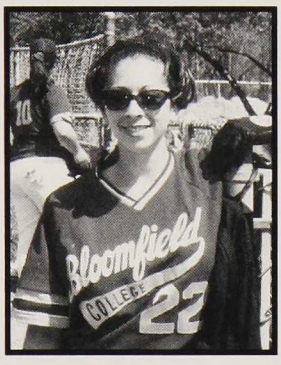
WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

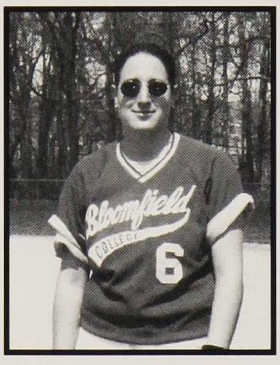












The Lady Deacons completed a successful 13-10 season with a good balance of pitching and hitting.

Senior Claudia Murphy had 25 hits and 21 RBIs to lead the team, and freshman Tracey Thompsen topped the club with a .439 average. Sophomore Melissa Mallen's .500 on-base percentage was a team best. So was freshman Kris Innocent's 2 home runs, and sophomore Kristine Greenhalgh's 17 runs scored.

Innocent went 6-3 with a 2.54 ERA from the mound and senior Pam Barlow's ERA was an outstanding 2.58. Sophomore Kara Mancini did not make an error in her 21 games.

Office of the President

Dear Class of '96:

Congratulations on your achievement. You have worked hard to earn your college degree, and I commend each of you for realizing your goals.

You leave us with the skills, the knowledge and the values you will draw upon for the rest of your life. I know you will use your Bloomfield College education to make informed personal choices, and I am confident that you will not close your eyes to the needs of others.

If you face the future with the commitment you brought to your work here, you will surely be successful.

Please stay in touch with us. Let us know where you are and how you are doing. I hope you will come back and visit often. We want to add your name to the growing list of distinguished alumni and alumnae of Bloomfield College.

I extend to each of you my congratulations and best wishes.

Sincerely,

John F. Noonan
President

I thank God for carrying me through the tough times and I thank my wonderful husband, Tony for all his love and support.

Lorna G. Derilhomme
Of all the people, you will know and love in a lifetime, you are the only one you'll never loose. To the questions of your life you're the answer, to the problems you're the solution.

Senior Quotes

Deshanna Foxworth
Well guys, we finally made it. Let's not forget about all the good times we had: Atlantic City and UMDNJ (what time is it?). Good luck to all my classmates. I would like to thank my family & friends for believing in me (Daisy, Alissa, Lameka & Counte). Thanks to my husband for all those late nights typing. Thanks Mom for being there in my times of need. Love you all.

Shannon Groome
Thanx to all my sisters, Sorority and family.
Thanx for your support Mom & Dad.

Charla C. Holder
Well we finally did it!!! Thank you David, Mommy & Daddy, Trene & John for all you support! Above all I Thank God for without him this would not have been possible . "One's work may be finished, but one's education, never."

Switzer D. Holly
No awards were ever given to the Lazy in the past and will never be bestowed to the last Ranks of a Class in the future- But only the top Ranks- So it is and will ever be for success in life- Therefore, Success is and will always be earned through Hard Work and Highest Dedication. So it was for me at Bloomfield College and will ever be for me in Graduate Studies. Thank you to all professors, teachers, parents, friends, & relatives who have supported me in this endeavor.

Nicole Jenkins
A special thank you to my family and friends. For their inspiration, support, encouragement and love while I was earning my degree. I share my achievement with all of you. To the underclassmen of BC, take advantage of the knowledge & wisdom shared with you at BC by using it, applying it and making it work for you.

Lucy Louison
We've made it through Grammar, Junior, and High School. These were all chapters in our life that are not forgotten. Now we have come to the end of another chapter and all we can do is look forward to the beginning of a new chapter. We have to remember that, "Experience is the greatest teacher," and to always focus on our goals. I would like to congratulate everyone on their graduation and wish everyone a lot of luck and blessing as we move onward in life.

Ann Lunde
To my mother. "Without you, none of this would have been possible. You've been there for me through it all. Although I may not say it enough, I appreciate you and all that you do for me. Thank you for always believing in me. I love you."

Jewel Mayo-Griner
I made it! A special thanks from the bottom of my heart to Paulie Stalks, for giving me those first words of encouragement to return to school. A long thanks to my sister Faye Mayo-Fedd, who was always there for me for the entire four years and to my niece Sabrina Alston for her kind words of encouragement. An to my son Shawn for his support. And a final thank you to all my friends and family who supported me. I love you all - Best of luck to the entire graduating class of 1996.

Kim Oliver
Mom, - Well I finally did it. 4 years of good times & tough times for which you have always been there. I may not say this often enough, but I love you & I appreciate all of the love, support & guidance that you have given me. I could not have done it without you, love your daughter Kim; To Natasha - A - "I need someone to carry my bags."

Jenny Sinang
I would like to thank God for giving me the courage to go on, my family - especially my mom for keeping the saying "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." Literally, and Jojo for the warm love and encouragement.

Cecilia Stanton-Stevenson
There are only three things I had to remember to make it this far: Take advantage of every opportunity reach towards all of your goals and never let anything get in the way of your success.

Lenora Wallace
"It's better to have it and not need it, than to need it and not have it," said by the greatest father in the world, without him and God I have nothing. Thank you and I love you forever. I would also like to give thanks to my MOM, Nah-nah, D.J., L.J., Grandma's W+B, uncles, aunts and cousins who were always there for me. To some professors, Shelia, Irvell, Wendy, Reese, Jerel, Steph, Aaliya + Junior you know you got that!

Sonya H. Washington
Attending Bloomfield was a struggle, as well as a pleasure, ad I want to thank my mother, Juanita W. and let her know how much I appreciate her help and support over the years. Congratulations to the rest of the Class of 1996.

John Welsh
Thank you to my family for making graduation finally come true.

Vickki Willis
I have learned a lot during these years about myself and people, I learned that the only person you can rely upon is God.

Wendy A. Ziegenfus
"You are your past," it follows you forever. "Thanks" to very special people who will never be forgotten, Dr. Claudia Kwaolchekyk, Prof. Gorden Eyyer, also Doug Hedli for your help. To my special friends Mishia, Irvelle and Lenora, I'll miss you. Mom, I love you, Thanks 4 giving me your all. Craig, Baby, your the best.

Lev D. Zilbermints
I would like to thank Bloomfield College for everything it did for me. I would like to encourage every student to get involved in student activities, for better development of leadership skills.

Letter from the Editor.....

When the Yearbook Staff sat down to think about our theme and dedication for the yearbook, we were all stumped as to who and what it would be. We thought long and hard about who and what has helped us make it through our college years. It was no surprise that the idea of family was unanimously and enthusiastically accepted by the staff. It was our family, siblings, friends or professors that helped to encourage our success in college. It is therefore to our families at home and at school that we dedicate this yearbook.

The Yearbook Staff would like to thank all those who helped with this book, especially our advisor, Eileen Polazzi. Finally I would like to thank the Yearbook Staff for their enthusiasm and spirit in doing this yearbook.

Enjoy the memories!

To Our Dearest Daughter,

Congratulations to you from me and from your beloved father. I know that, if your father were still alive, he would have been very proud of you. We are blessed to have you as our daughter who always guides and helps us. We love you very much and God bless you always.

Love from,
Inay and Tatay
